

We support the indiana no call act. Allowing the telemarketers to call previous customers would make the cuurent law worthless. This law has been very effective in improving the quality of our at home time and family lfe. Please leave these state laws as is. Thank you.